

October 6th - 4.30p

MJ Ebenhack on “Energy and Gender Equity in Global Development”

Wilmot 116 (attached to Goergen Bldg)
Half of humanity is fuelwood dependent. This dependence is especially hard on women as they are the ones that obtain the household’s fuel. It can lead to attacks while out gathering, injury from cooking over open fires, & lack of opportunities for women’s development (like education) which is critical to overall development.

Co-Sponsored with AHEAD Energy Corporation

November 3rd - 4.30p

Elizabeth Henderson on “Gender Equality in Organic Farming”

Gowen Room, Wilson Commons

Co-sponsored with Grassroots, Sustainability UCIS, Campus Dining Services & Auxiliary Operations

November 11th - 12.30p

Patricia Calkins, Vice President of Environment, Health & Safety at Xerox Corporation

Schlegel 102

RSVP: sabre.morabito@simon.rochester.edu

Sponsored by Simon’s Net Impact, Simon Student Services, & the Center for Entrepreneurship

Co- Sponsored by:

AHEAD Energy Corporation
Campus Dining Services
Center for Entrepreneurship
Grassroots
Simon Net Impact
Simon Student Services
Sustainability UCIS
University Council on Sustainability with Special Thanks to Campus Bookstore

Ben Ebenhack
Katrina Korfmacher
Connie Lewin
Lori Packer
Saudra Peters
Cameron Schauf
Liesel Schwarz
Carol Shuherk

and all our generous speakers!

2009 Susan B Anthony Institute for Gender & Women’s Studies Lecture Series

women & sustainability

Join Us for a Special Evening...

Tuesday, November 3rd with Elizabeth Henderson, author of “Sharing the Harvest: A Citizen’s Guide to Community Supported Agriculture”

4.30p - Lecture - “Gender Equality in Organic Farming”

Gowen Room, Wilson Commons

6.00p - Book Signing

Book sales provided by River Campus Bookstore

6.30p - Dinner with the Author

Delicious Locally Grown, Vegetarian Buffet

Meliora Club, Salon D

Presented by Campus Dining Services

Dinner tickets are sold in advance only for $16.99

November 17th - 4.30p

Round Table Discussion with Local University & College Sustainability Coordinators

Gowen Room, Wilson Commons

Join coordinators from Brockport, Finger Lakes Community College, Hobart William Smith College, Ithaca College, Univ. of Buffalo & UR to hear discussion of shared problems & unique innovations in solving campus Sustainability issues.

Light refreshments served.

Co-Sponsored with Sustainability UCIS & the University Council on Sustainability

December 1st - 4.30p

Paige Lawrence, PhD on “The Impact of Dioxin on Mammary Gland Development and Lactation: Implications for Women’s Health and Disease”

Gowen Room

Research shows that dioxin exposure disrupts mammary gland cell differentiation & function. Learn how this may have repercussions for breast cancer, breast health, reproduction & lactation in women.

December 10th - 4.30p

Dr. Shanna Swan on “The Effect of Environmental Chemicals on Sexually-Dimorphic Development”

Gowen Room

Discover how phthalates (common plasticizers) effect a developing fetus, and how this results in differences in males & females.