

October

TRANSactions Exhibition Opening Party

October 5, 2007 – SOLD OUT

30 tickets on sale for $10 (original price was $17)

Take the Red Line bus

The event was at the Memorial Art Gallery and included live music and entertainment, as well as a preview of the contemporary Latin American and Latino art exhibit that the MAG hosted. Students were encouraged to use the bussing system that was already available on campus.

The event was cosponsored with SALSA.

RMSC Our Body exhibit

October 13, 2007 – SOLD OUT

60 tickets on sale for $10 (original price was $17)

2 busses provided

The exhibit was at the Rochester Museum and Science Center. The exhibit featured human cadavers in various positions in various states and allowed for the people walking through the exhibit to move at their own speed and appreciate the many different exhibits for as long as they wished. There was no other given entertainment in the exhibit aside from the displays. Students were also able to use their ticket to experience the rest of the museum.

This event was cosponsored by BCS, UC, NSC, SUBS, and SAM.

Ghost Walk

October 27, 2007 – SOLD OUT

40 tickets sold for $5 (original price was $12)

Bussing provided

The event was held by the Landmark Society. It started out from the Third Presbyterian Church on Miags St. The Ghost Walk is a walking tour to different houses where actors would recreate dramas from Rochester's past (most of which were gory or scary). A story was told at about 7 different sites along the street.

The event was cosponsored by CAB.